

Week 28
March 29, 2009

A Question of Identity
The Parable of the Talents
Matthew 25:14-30

1. READ Matthew 25:14-30
2. What would you do if someone suddenly gave you a very large sum of money to invest for them? Would you know how to invest it in order to double your money? What kind of relationship would have to exist in order to trust someone with that kind of money? What responsibilities would you have to the person who entrusted you with the money?
3. When have you sensed God telling you, "Well done?"
4. What adjectives would you use to describe God: How do they reflect your relationship with him?

5. Oprah Winfrey has a regular column in her magazine titled, "What I Know for Sure."
What do you know for sure about God?

For the hardcore group:

How has God called to you? Who has represented God to you, or reflected His love to you? How often are you aware of God speaking to you during the day?