Can We Trust the Bible?

Proving the Bible has not been corrupted since it was written. Part 2

1. What is the difference between technical errors/typos and subject matter errors? (review from last week)
2. How many subject matter error words are there that we question? (review from last week)
3. How hard would it be for someone to change all the documents all over the world if they wanted to make the Bible say something it didn't? Ever heard of Block Chain?
4. In 111 AD about 200 years prior to Constantine, what did the Romans say the Christians they captured were doing? Singing hymns to Christ as to a _____? If this is true, could Constantine have changed the Bible to say something different?
5. Is the Bible a translation of a translation of a translation? How are the Bible translations really done? Are more modern translations more accurate or less accurate? Why?
6. Is the Bible style legendary? What would legendary styles look like?
7. How do we know the Apostles were not making up what they were writing? What happened to the Apostles? Many people die for a lie they are told by someone else that they believe, but how many people die for a lie they make up themselves?
8. What kind of things did they write about themselves that would make us think it had to be true? If they had been making this up, how would they have looked in the narrative?
9. How hard would it be to know the most common names that were used 100 years ago in a different part of the world? Why does this indicate the Bible was written when and where it claims to have been written?
10. What can we conclude about the reliability of the Bible we have?
