

Study Questions
March 18, 2018
Soul Care
Colossians 3

1. Have you read Moby Dick? What images do you remember from it?
2. Why is Melville's story so potent in today's angry world? What tend to be the White Whales we chase today?
3. What do you think about the description of the soul as "our fully integrated selves"?
4. What causes our souls to "dis-integrate"?
5. We equated distorted pursuits of money and sex with security and intimacy. What else do you think distorted pursuits of these two represent?
6. In what ways do you think anger serves as a "check engine" light for our souls?
7. In what ways can you see the list of virtues serving as an antidote for the stated vices? Why is it so difficult to pursue the virtues over the vices?
8. When it comes to putting on the virtues and putting away the vices, how do you see the replacement theory at work?
9. When it comes to anger, discuss its short-term appeal and long-term destructiveness.
10. What are some practical ways you can use the replacement theory this week?