Message:
Heart Break: The Heart in Whom God Dwells
Psalm 32:1-5 and Psalm 51

1. Why is the broken and contrite heart the most important starting point to loving God and our neighbor?
2. How could David possibly be called “a man after God’s own heart” in light of his moral failure?
3. As you look at the characteristics of a broken and contrite heart, where do you observe these in your life? Where do you need to go deeper?

Loss of pretended goodness:

Absence of self-righteous judgment:
