Study Questions
Acts 10

1. What do you think about the modern advent of dietary restrictions and fads? What do they say about American culture?
2. What truth do you find in the idea, "You are what you eat?"
3. Why do you think Jewish culture/religion was intertwined with food?
4. Cornelius was God-fearing but also a Roman Centurion. What does God's invitation to Cornelius say about the grace of God?
5. Who might be a modern version of Cornelius for the American church?
6. Does it seem like God changed his mind about dietary laws? If God is immutable, how do you rectify this?
7. What do you make of Peter's obsession with determining and managing his own cleanness? How do we do something similar?
8. Peter thought he was righteous and correct, but God used a tanner, a centurion and a dream to change his mind. On what topics or people do you think the American church has missed the heart of God?
9. What do you make of the idea, "You are how you eat?" How might this affect the practice of your faith?
10. What are your dreams for the future of SFC, especially as they pertain to keeping a seat open at the table?
