Luke 12:13-21

Consider the following:

1. Many in our country think “greed is good.” What do you find yourself wanting more and more of?
2. Jesus spoke more about money and possessions than He did about prayer and faith. What do the following two teachings tell us about the dangers of wealth?
  - a. Luke 12:15
  - b. 1 Timothy 6:9-10
3. The ultimate choice is given to us by Christ in Matthew 6:24.
  - a. What is the choice we are given?
  - b. What results from making each choice in the life of a Christ-follower?
4. Look at the three practical suggestions Richard Foster gives us. Discuss how to put each suggestion into everyday practice.
  - a. Get in touch with your feelings about money
  - b. Let us stop denying our wealth
  - c. Let us give with glad and generous hearts
5. What do you think about putting a dollar on your refrigerator? What else could you do to remind yourself that money doesn’t own you?
