

Study Questions for December 2, 2018
Paul Watermulder
A Series on Advent: How to Approach Christmas
Luke 1:1-17

1. Dr. Watermulder claimed there is something of each of us in each character we study today. What is one way you are like:
  - Zechariah?
  - King Herod?
  - Elizabeth?

2. Think of one close friend, one friend who is not quite so close but still significant to you and one friendship that has lapsed. Several traits of “friends” were noted - which of these do you think you could practice this week with a particular friend?

3. In prayer, ask the Lord to reveal to you one of the ways he is your friend. Tell the Lord what kind of person you would like to become that is different from who you are right now.
