

Confidence Trap
September 18, 2016
Study Questions
Mark 1: 29-45

1. Who is the worst singer you have ever heard (refrain from answering if they are sitting next to you)?
2. Do you consider yourself bold? Do you have the ability to “put yourself out there”? Has that always been the case or has something changed?
3. Do you think boldness is a learned or innate quality?
4. Where do you think boldness fits in matters of faith?
5. What are some modern day versions of boldness akin to the fever or leprosy from our stories today?
6. What other Bible stories seem to show God favoring boldness?
7. When does boldness become recklessness?
8. In what area of your spiritual life do you have the most trouble being bold?
9. Is there anything God has been calling you to do that you have avoided?
10. If there is some calling on your life, how can you “put yourself out there” this week?