

Confidence Trap
November 27, 2016
Study Questions
Mark 7: 1-23

1. What is standard practice in your household for who gets the last serving of highly coveted fare?
2. Where do you see conflicts of interest currently confronting our country?
3. Where do you see personal conflicts of interest when it comes to God's plans for your life versus your reality?
4. What are some examples of how Christians re-label things to lessen their obvious incongruence with scripture?
5. What are some ways we personally label things as "corban" in our lives?
6. When it comes to faith and obedience, where are we prone to say, "Yeah...but?"
7. What are some Christian traditions that clearly undermine God's law?
8. We can explain commandments away through religious methods (corban) or appeals to emotion (yeah..but). Which do you think is more dangerous?
9. What do you think are the most glaring corporate applications of "corban" in the USA?
10. What does it look like to make a great exchange in your life? What makes this difficult and how do you do it?