

Study Questions
July 25, 2017
Seven
Revelation 3:14-22

1. What is your recollection of the story The Emperor's New Clothes?
2. What was your takeaway from that story as a child? What might it be now?
3. What do you think makes people unwilling to state the obvious?
4. What was your understanding of lukewarm in Revelation 3? How does the aqueduct system change your understanding?
5. How can self-sufficiency be problematic for Christians?
6. Where do you see instances of toxic self-sufficiency in the Bible?
7. How do you think Christians can slip into apathy? Why is apathy so dangerous and counter to God's character?
8. Where are some instances of apathy in your life or in the modern church?
9. Where do you see the theme of self-sufficiency and apathy interconnected in the Bible?
10. How might you speak up this week? To what situation can you mimic the little boy in The Emperor's New Clothes?