

Jewish Lives Matter

Study in Amos

Amos 1:1-2:8

1. Where have you encountered racism in your life?
2. What biases or experiences have shaped some of your views on race?
3. What have you learned from other races regarding their experience in White America?
4. How have you seen the blame game played in America regarding racial relationships?
5. Why are we unable or unwilling to see our own faults/prejudices?
6. What do you make of the “_____ Lives Matter” movements in all of its iterations?
7. What does the Gospel have to do with race relations?
8. Where are you willing to see some fault for the current state of affairs?
9. What do you think of the idea of Jesus being decidedly multi-ethnic?
10. How does the invitation to follow Jesus change the way you think about and treat other races?
